Jonathan from Hugo, Minn. loves NASCAR. He watches the races, cheers on his favorite drivers and has now wished to go to a NASCAR race to meet his favorite driver, Jeff Gordon. Jonathan has muscular dystrophy, but will not let his medical condition stop him in his tracks.

In addition to being a race fan, Jonathan likes "Star Wars," playing video games and his favorite teacher is his school principal! This race season, Jonathan will be watching from the stands as he hears the most famous words in NASCAR, "Drivers, start your engines!"

"I wish to go to a NASCAR race to meet Jeff Gordon!"
